Are you a young working adult searching for the meaning of life?

Would you like to find some inspiration to help you grow spiritually, socially & professionally?

Are you looking to find God in the maze of modern-day addictions & alternatives?

How do we use modern technology like CRM, FaceBook, Twitter & Blogs to build God's Kingdom?

If you are a young working adult desiring to live a more complete, meaningful and happy life in God's light, this conference is for you.

Attending the conference will help you better understand God's plan for you at your workplace, family and church and equip you with the right skills to be witnesses of God.

You will hear from multiple talented speakers with exciting and passionate stories of God's workings in their lives.

Given the overwhelming success of Christ@Work 2005 & 2007, Christ@Work 2009 is an event you wouldn't want to miss! Get your tickets early!

Who Should Attend:

- Catholic young working adults in the 20-40 age group who would like to grow spiritually, socially and professionally.
- Catholic young working adults who would like to get inspired by the moving testimonies of various speakers and panellists who have found the real and experiential God.
- Catholic young working adults interested in networking with their peers to discuss issues of spirituality at the workplace, families & everyday society.

Get your tickets today!
